the real mission of the church, and to invite labor to a more sympathetic attitude toward it in its efforts to solve economic and social problems. The theme will be treated fairly and recognition made of the criticisms of the church's organized labor.

"The Broken Tree" will be the subject of the sermon on which Rev. J. Young will preach this morning in Centenary Methodist Church. His theme tonight will be "A City's Great White Way."

Dr. W. Ashbury Christian will conduct both services in Union Station Methodist Church.

His subject this morning being "The Prince of Peace." At the evening service he will preach on "Danger! Danger! Lookout for the Day!"

Mrs. Thomas Bowdler, formerly one of the leading church choir singers of Baltimore, will be heard at both services at the Second

Baptist Church. She will sing this morning excerpts from "The Messiah," following the "Easter Symphony," and tonight in a composition of the great French writer,

Saint-Saens.

At Hanover Avenue Christian Church this morning Rev. George W. Kemper will preach on "Is the Old Gospel Worth It?" Tonight

his subject will be "In Platte's Place."

Question," will be the subject on which

General Secretary S. R. McKee will speak this afternoon at 8:30 o'clock at the men's meeting in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association. The address, which is the third in a series on "The Man of Galilee," will be illustrated by stereopticon pictures.

At the boys' meeting this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association, the subject will be

"The Forfeiture of John, the Pharisee's Question." The talk will be illustrated with more than fifty views.

Dr. S. C. Mitchell, president of the Medical College of Virginia, will address the members and friends of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the subject, "Jesus as a Worker." There will be special music and illustrated songs.

The Rev. Charles W. Seaton, the rector, of Christ Church, will not be able to officiate there to-day because of the sudden death of his wife's father, the Rev. Edward

Mead. The Rev. David H. Lewis will officiate at the 11 o'clock service, and Rev.

knock" in the section, and expect to run him down before long.

HEALTHY MAN BUYS COFFIN.

Wilmington, N. C., December 20.—The unusual occurrence of a man selecting his own coffin and calmly making other arrangements for his burial which, judging by his healthy appearance, is not apt to occur for years, was presented here this afternoon.

To the astonishment of a local undertaker,

J. C. Farver, a well-known citizen of the city, purchased a coffin for himself.

Sunday Services in City Churches

Special Christmas music will be rendered in the churches today. Elaborate programs have been arranged, and in many of the churches the regular choir will be supported by several soloists. The following are the subjects of the services:

At the evening service at South Street Christian Church, Rev. H. C. McChesney will preach a special sermon on "The Case for Sunday Rest," which will be supported by soloists. An effort will be made to correct some common misapprehensions as to

How One Woman Saved Money

A few days ago a lady came into our store and asked to see some black broadcloth for a skirt. She had heard of our money-saving plan.

She bought the broadcloth, paying $5.50 for enough for the skirt.

The tailor whom we recommended made the skirt and charged only $4.00.

She came into the store soon after, wearing the skirt. She said:

"I was never so pleased with anything in all my life. It is better than many skirts I have paid $15.00 for."

Our plan can save money for you as well as this lady. Let us show you.
